

9 November 2021

CLECAT Freight Forwarders Forum 2021

CLECAT is pleased to invite to the Freight Forwarders Forum, which will take place on

25 November 2021, 14.00 - 17.30h CET
Online

Building sustainable and resilient supply chains

The 2021 edition of CLECAT's Freight Forwarders Forum, entitled 'Building Sustainable and Resilient Supply Chains', will take place online on 25 November, from 14.00-17.30h CET.

The Freight Forwarders Forum will feature three panel sessions addressing priority topics for the freight forwarding and logistics industry, including the maritime logistics supply chain post-COVID, the role of platforms and how logistics sector can benefit from them and the road to zero emission logistics.

Confirmed speakers include:

Magda Kopczynska, Director for Waterborne Transport DG MOVE, Dr

Matthias Bauer, Senior Economist, ECIPE, Sami Fouadh, CEO, CMA/CGM France, Kathrin Brost, DHL Global Forwarding Vice President, Global Head of GoGreen Program, Angie Farrag-Thibault, Project Lead, Clean Trucking - Road Freight Zero, WEF, Peregrine Storrs-Fox, Risk Management Director, TT Club, James Hookham, Director, Global Shippers' Forum, Anne Sophie Fribourg, Director of Ocean Freight Development, Bolloré, Norbert Kouwenhoven, Strategy and Innovation Advisor, Dutch Customs Administration, Director Supply Chain & Logistics, Port of Rotterdam, Jens Roemer, Regional Managing Director, a.Hartrodt, Alan Lewis, Technical Director, Smart Freight Center and Rudy Hemeleers.

The programme is available here.

REGISTER NOW

Add event to calendar

CLECAT's Freight Forwarders Forum takes place once a year, offering the freight forwarding and transport policy communities an occasion to discuss policy and business issues affecting the logistics, freight forwarding and customs services sector. The event combines high-level policy discussions between the policy makers and industry representatives with thought-provoking presentations.

