Dear Association Members,

FIATA, in partnership with the Global Supply Chain Classroom (GSCC), is organising a three-part webinar series on the critical topic of 'Market Structure and Maritime Competition', as part of FIATA's current efforts to address the maritime supply chain crisis. Kindly forward this invitation to your members and/or interested parties.

The first two sessions scheduled on 28 April 2022 and 10 May 2022 will be online lectures delivered by top academic and industry experts and aim at providing participants with in-depth background knowledge. The final session, on 20 May 2022, will be a high-level panel offering insight into possible solutions to tackle the crisis.

By attending this three-part webinar, participants will gain critical knowledge to use in their daily activities and a better understanding of how the crisis may be addressed at the global level.
